

The Smart Shopper

Name: _____ Date: _____

PART 1 Compound Noun Match (Vocabulary)

These compound nouns come from the reading (or the topic of returns). Match each one (1–8) to its meaning (A–H). Write the letter on the line.

Compound noun		Meaning
1. advice column	_____	A. money that a seller gives back to you in bills and coins
2. Web site	_____	B. a limit that is measured in days or weeks
3. time limit	_____	C. a set of pages that a company puts on the Internet
4. shipping costs	_____	D. a policy that does not allow customers to give items back
5. store credit	_____	E. costs that you pay to send a package
6. cash refund	_____	F. a rule that explains when and how you can give an item back
7. return policy	_____	G. credit that a store gives you instead of money
8. no-return policy	_____	H. a newspaper column that answers readers' questions

PART 2 True or False? (Reading Comprehension)

Read "The Smart Shopper" again. Circle T or F. If the sentence is false, correct it on the line.

Statement	Your answer	Correction (if false)
1. Madelyn bought the earrings in a store near her home.	T / F	_____
2. Madelyn does not like the earrings she bought.	T / F	_____
3. The seller has a no-return policy.	T / F	_____
4. If merchandise is defective, the seller must return the money or make an exchange.	T / F	_____
5. If an item is in good condition and the retailer has a no-return policy, the customer can always get a refund.	T / F	_____
6. The Smart Shopper says these rules are different for Internet purchases.	T / F	_____
7. The Smart Shopper suggests asking the merchant for the return policy in writing.	T / F	_____

8. Madelyn checked the return policy before she bought the earrings.

T / F

PART 3 Smart Shopper Showdown (Critical Thinking)

You want to buy a backpack online for ₩200,000. Three sellers have it. Use the column's questions to compare their return policies. Each Yes is one point.

Question to ask before you buy	Seller A	Seller B	Seller C
Money-back guarantee?	Yes	No	Yes
Time limit of 14 days or more?	Yes	No	Yes
Cash refund (not only store credit)?	No	No	Yes
Seller pays return shipping costs?	No	No	No
Return policy written on the Web site?	Yes	Yes	Yes
Total "Yes" points	_____	_____	_____

1. Rank the sellers from best (1) to worst (3): _____
2. Which seller is most like the one Madelyn bought from? How do you know?

3. Even the best seller does not have every "Yes." What is one more question you would ask that seller before you buy?

PART 4 Define It (Compound Nouns + Adjective Clauses)

In the textbook, compound nouns are explained with adjective clauses. Complete each definition with who, that, or which.

Example: A jewelry lover is a person who loves jewelry.

1. shopping cart is a/an _____
2. gift card is a/an _____
3. sales clerk is a/an _____
4. price tag is a/an _____
5. online shopper is a/an _____

6. cash register is a/an _____

CHALLENGE Write a definition for a compound noun of your own, without saying the word:

A partner guesses the word.

PART 5 Talk (Consolidation)

Ask your partner. Follow up with "Why?" or "What happened?"

Questions

1. Are you a smart shopper? Explain your answer.
2. Have you ever gotten a cash refund? For what? Why?
3. What is something you wanted to return, but didn't?
4. What is your biggest "deal-breaker" in a return policy?

Sample: "I'm a smart shopper. I always buy from sellers that have a money-back guarantee."

time limit • shipping costs • store credit • cash refund • return policy • defective